

David Field: Along Maine's Appalachian Trail

--Free--
Public Warmly Invited

David Field will share stories and photos from his new book Along Maine's Appalachian Trail that feature the history of Myron Avery and building the AT in Maine, highlighting 100 additional photos recently discovered since publication. Dave's talk will bring to life the AT in Maine, its beginning, and its history. The photos reveal the rugged landscape of Maine and trail development in action and how it was all accomplished. Knowing the history of the trail you hike will add a meaningful dimension to your dayhike or outing on the AT in Maine.

David Field will talk at 7pm on Thursday, March 29th, at Maine Audubon's Fields Pond Center, 216 Fields Pond Rd, Holden, ME 04429, about 15 minutes south of Bangor. The talk is co-sponsored by the Maine Chapter of the Appalachian Mountain Club and the Maine Audubon and is free and open to the public.
