

My Favorite Places in Maine: State Parks and other Special Places

Eliza Townsend, Commissioner of Conservation

Eliza Townsend, the Commissioner of the Maine Department of Conservation, will talk about her favorite state parks and other special places in Maine and what we need to do to protect and maintain them. Marking the 75th anniversary this year of Maine's State Park system, the Commissioner will highlight the work of the Maine Department of Conservation in protecting the special places of Maine that are highly valued by AMC members, state residents, and visitors alike.

A potluck dinner will begin at 6 pm; the presentation at 7 pm. Bring a potluck item to share and your own dinnerware. Drinks will be available. Parking is free in the municipal lot off Union St.
