

Carey Kish: Hiking the Sentiers Frontaliers Along the U.S. - Canadian Border

Free and Open to the Public

Carey Kish

Portland Press Herald Outdoor Writer

March 30, 2010, Gilsland Farm, Falmouth, ME 04105

Sponsored by Maine Audubon Society and Maine Appalachian Mountain Club

Join Carey Kish, Maine AMC'er and Portland Press Herald Outdoor Writer, as he recounts his week-long hike on the Sentiers Frontaliers, or Border Trail, that meanders along the international border between Canada and the U.S. The Expedition de Randonneurs Braves (Brave Hiker Expedition) with thirty hearty French Canadian walkers, started from the customs station at Chartierville, Quebec, just north of Pittsburg, NH, and proceeded east following the international boundary. The hikers passed over a series of 3,000-foot peaks amidst the rugged and unpopulated border region during their 55-mile, six-day trek. This program is sponsored jointly by Maine Audubon and the Maine Chapter of the Appalachian Mountain Club.

A potluck dinner will begin at 6 pm; Carey's presentation at 7 pm. Bring a potluck item and your own dinnerware (plate, utensils etc.). Drinks will be provided.

March 30, 2010, Tuesday, 6pm Potluck, 7pm Carey Kish
Audubon Society's Gilsland Farm, Gilsland Farm Rd, Falmouth, ME